

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY IS PLEASED TO HOST

---

The Nineteenth International Conference of the Simone de Beauvoir Society

---

SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR: INTERPRETATIONS AND TRANSLATIONS FOR THE TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY

EUGENE, OREGON USA JUNE 15–18, 2011

For over half a century, Beauvoir's thought has captivated scholars of literature, philosophy, history, sociology, and gender studies. Following the historic publication of a new English translation of Le deuxième sexe, Beauvoir's work once again calls out for interpretation. From academia to politics, from theory to practice, twenty-first-century interpretations and translations affirm the enduring significance of Beauvoir's writing and thinking.

Keynote address by Debra Bergoffen: "Simone de Beauvoir and the Marquis de Sade: The Ethics and Politics of Rape."

Invited speakers: Margaret Simons and translators Constance Borde and Sheila Malovany-Chevalier.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

To register go online to philosophy.uoregon.edu/news/?p=315

Sponsored by the University of Oregon Department of Philosophy, with additional support provided by the UO Comparative Literature Program (COLT), Feminist Philosophy Research Interest Group, Society for Interdisciplinary Feminist Phenomenology (SIFP), Department of Romance Languages, Translation Studies Working Group, Center for the Study of Women in Society (CSWS), UO Graduate School, and the Oregon Humanities Center.

For more information, contact Associate Professor Bonnie Mann, bmann@uoregon.edu. View the conference Facebook page at en-gb.facebook.com/pages/19th-International-Conference-of-the-Simone-de-Beauvoir-Society/197748620258166. An equal-opportunity, affirmative-action institution committed to cultural diversity and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. This publication will be made available in accessible formats upon request. ©2011 University of Oregon DES0411-021mq-xxxx