Newsletter November 2013

Dear Community Members:

I wanted to take this opportunity to thank everybody for making the Saturday November 7 dinner a success. Thank you everybody for bringing great Pakistani food and helping with making all activities very successful. One of my Sunday school students Zohaib Afridi has posted some pictures on our Facebook page. Another of my Sunday school student Azan Mahmood has created a new Google + page under our name pacssv. This has a link to the new our new YouTube page. These new pages have some photos and videos posted already. If you have photos or videos of Saturday’s event, please sent those to me and I will post them with Azan’s help. He has done a great job with this new page. We are also hoping that several families who were unable to attend the last Saturday’s dinner due to various conflicts will be able to do so next time. I am planning to reserve the same venue for a March 2014 program. Please send us any suggestions you have to improve our programs.
