

The Ann Garry and Sharon L. Bishop Feminist Philosophy Endowed Lecture Series presents a panel discussion:

The Philosophy of María Lugones Meets Transgender Studies: A Complex Conversation

Friday, February 12, 3:00-5:00 PST Zoom: <https://calstatela.zoom.us/j/83016887361>

Since its inception, the theoretical frameworks undergirding Trans Studies have largely been shaped around white, anglo queer theory and anthropological studies of gender variance. Panelists Talia Bettcher (CSULA), Pedro (PJ) DiPietro (Syracuse University), Hil Malatino (Penn State) and Andrea Pitts (UNC Charlotte) explore the relevance of María Lugones's philosophy to a re-understanding of trans and nonbinary oppression and resistance within a decolonial feminist framework.

Co-sponsored by the Department of Philosophy and the Center for the Study of Genders and Sexualities.
